

Emma's journey in dance began at just under two years old and joined Chesco Dance Center at the age of 3. By the age of five, her passion ignited through competition by joining the Gems Dance Company, setting the stage for a dedicated dance career. Over the years, she has expanded her skills by attending prestigious summer intensives, including First State Ballet, Point Park University, Brandywine Ballet, and most recently, Princeton Ballet School.

Emma discovered her love for teaching at just nine years old, assisting in classes and eventually taking on roles like substituting and choreographing. Notably, she choreographed for Chesco Dance Center's Spring Ballet in both 2023 and 2024, and she had the incredible opportunity to create pieces for Chesco's Gems Dance Company. This year, Emma continues to inspire others by choreographing for Gems and teaching her own class, embodying her commitment to both dance and education.
